

Final Analysis of Kennedy's "Inaugural Address"

In President Kennedy's "Inaugural Address", the speaker addresses many ways that America can challenge itself to improve.

First, choose one of the ways that Kennedy challenges America to improve. Choose at least two rhetorical strategies Kennedy used in his speech to help develop this point. Why and how did each of those strategies help develop and strengthen Kennedy's argument? Finally, drawing on your own experience, reflect on how America is living up to Kennedy's challenge regarding the point you chose. Include at least two examples to support your claim.